

I Am the Sun (So Hot)

(Cohen/Gray)

I am the Sun, I am the Sun
I'm four-and-one-half-billion years
And you might think that's old
But as stars go, I've still got a lot
Of stories to be told
I'm a ball of burning gas
Millions of degrees
But that don't make me bad because Without me you would freeze

Hot
I'm hot
Hottest thing in the solar system
Hot
So hot
Hottest thing in the solar system

The Milky Way's 400 billion stars
In case you missed 'em

But I'm the one who puts the solar
In the solar system
I'm eight-hundred-sixty-five-thousand miles wide
Well how big is that? Well you can fit
A million earths inside
Hot
I'm hot
Hot, hot, hot hot...
